

My name is Celia Yang and I'm currently a grade nine student at St Joseph's College School. My hobbies include reading, drawing, spending time with my family and taking walks in the sun. My favorite color is purple. I'm not usually comfortable talking to new people, but I really enjoyed this program and listening to the senior's story!