

My name is TL Sutherland. I am currently in grade 10 and have aspirations of attending UBC or Waterloo for software engineering sometime in the future. I use they/them pronouns and am also saving up to transition once I graduate high school. I play instruments inside and outside of school and play too many video games which often leads to me procrastinating. That aside, I hope you enjoy this short interview with Marie Slark.