

Keting Trinh is an ambitious Grade 10 student from Scarborough. When schoolwork does not give her too much trouble, she prides herself in her various hobbies and interests such as : unicycling, crochet, origami, baking, graphic design, photography, playing musical instruments, writing, you name it. Though stubborn and tenacious in her own right, she strides to make her own path in this mystical world of life.