

Desree Bugayong is currently a grade 10 student who currently attends Archbishop Dennis O'Connor Catholic Highschool. With a passion for literature, in her free time, she likes to read and also is fond of grabbing a warm cup of coffee and writing stories. She also enjoys the great outdoors such as going on bike rides in the summer and spending time with her family during camping. Desree hopes to travel around the world one day to learn more about other cultures and languages.
