

Born on January 31st, 1954, Marie Slark is a survivor of the Huronia Regional Centre. She spent 9 years there, but was officially discharged 13 years later at age 20. Marie is now enjoying retirement at age 68 where she lives with her sister, Antoinette Charlebois, their 2 cats and 1 dog. Marie enjoys knitting and crocheting, often making hats and scarfs to donate to victims of domestic abuse. She has also made over 100 rosaries which are donated to a local church. Marie is interested in travelling to Rome sometime soon.
